PURPOSE:

The concepts of respect and responsibility guide the administration of disciplinary action at Mennonite Village. This means that the supervisor treats you with respect and you take responsibility for complying with the work rules. The supervisor will explain the desired behavior/correction to you and explain the consequences you will face if you choose not to make the desired correction. You must then choose to take responsibility for correcting the problem or face the consequences of your actions.

POLICY:

Generally, disciplinary action will be progressive in nature. Some examples of disciplinary action that may occur are: oral warning, written warning, reduction in hours worked, performance improvement plan, decision-making leave, last chance agreement, or termination. These disciplinary measures are only guidelines. Management has discretion to initiate discipline at any step, to skip steps in the disciplinary process, or immediately discharge an employee. The seriousness of the problem and the employee's work record will determine what disciplinary action will be taken. If you feel that discipline was administered incorrectly or was excessively punitive, you may follow the grievance policy procedure.

The following list gives examples of actions that are contrary to Mennonite Village's expectations of positive behavior. If you choose to engage in any of these actions or other actions that are contrary to the expectations of Mennonite Village, you may be subject to disciplinary action up to, and including, termination of employment. If you have any questions, please consult your supervisor or Human Resources.
